Thompson National Properties Hires
Elizabeth Grossman as Vice President, Asset Management

IRVINE, Calif., (March 4, 2009) – Thompson National Properties, LLC, announced today that Elizabeth Grossman joined the company as Vice President, Asset Management effective December 2008.

Grossman is responsible for asset management of the Southern California and Phoenix property portfolio.

“Elizabeth brings a wealth of talent and experience to Thompson National Properties, our investors and her portfolio,” said Darryll Goodman, Senior Vice President, Asset Management at Thompson National Properties.

“I am looking forward to working with Darryll to create value for our investors in this economic climate,” said Grossman. “Additionally, I admire Tony Thompson’s vision and have confidence in his perception and timing in the market.”

Previously, Grossman was Regional Asset Manager at Grubb & Ellis Realty Investors, LLC, formerly Triple Net Properties, LLC, where she was responsible for 3.1 million square feet of commercial property throughout the United States, which included lease negotiation and lender and investor communication for each asset. Prior to this, Grossman held various positions at CB Richard Ellis, IDI Services Group and Greenwich Capital Markets, Inc.

She has obtained designations as Certified Property Manager (CPM) from the Institute of Real Estate Management (IREM), Certified Commercial Investment Manager (CCIM) and Building Owners and Managers Association (BOMA) for Real Property Administrator (RPA) and Facilities Management Administrator (FMA).

Thompson National Properties, LLC provides real estate investment opportunities and asset management to high net worth domestic, foreign, individual and institutional investors. As of March 4, 2009 Thompson National Properties has approximately 11.7 million square feet of property under management.
