Thompson National Properties Hires Josh Rubinger as Vice President, National Accounts, Eastern Region

IRVINE, Calif., (April 30, 2009) – Thompson National Properties, LLC, announced today that Josh Rubinger joined the company as Vice President, National Accounts, Eastern Region.

Rubinger is responsible for building revenue for Thompson National Properties by developing, expanding and managing partnerships with TNP's growing selling group of more than 100 firms.

"After conducting an extensive search, we are thrilled to have Josh join our national accounts team," said Greg Genovese, President, Securities Division at Thompson National Properties. "His experience and relationships fit well within TNP's strategic plans and initiatives, and we're excited to have him on board."

"I'm very excited to join Thompson National Properties and the impressive team that Greg Genovese and Tony Thompson have assembled," said Rubinger. "Given the experience and creativity of the team I am confident in TNP's ability to be successful in today's challenging economic environment."

Previously, Rubinger served as Relationship Manager at Oppenheimer Funds, Inc where he cultivated relationships and effectively positioned Oppenheimer's various products to financial institutions and advisor firms. Rubinger also held positions at Columbia Funds and Global Prior Art. Rubinger earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in Economics from Hamilton College in New York. He is a registered representative with the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA) holding Series 7 and 63 licenses.

Thompson National Properties, LLC provides real estate investment opportunities and asset management to high net worth domestic, foreign, individual and institutional investors. As of April 30, 2009 Thompson National Properties has 75 commercial properties totaling approximately 10.8 million square feet under management.
